

Wood Loft - Kelly

Side wall long guns vertical could be tracked to slide to the center from each end exposing storage behind

Sliding units could be on the deck or hung above the deck leaving work space across full width

Cabinetry can be any species including dark matching grey stained white oak wood , panels behind vertical guns will be beadboard white oak stained grey to match rest of study area or any other sample.

Center horizontal gun backing style will be a leather of choice as in the concept image.

Bubble raised panel case goods and trims can be similarly matched to study or the concept imag.

Side long guns would be tracked into center over center pistol area to expose concealed storage.

tracked side long guns would be off the deck leaving working deck space pull out work shelf could be centered on any one or all of the walls pistol display area on side wall could be permanently located or moveable magnetic pegs on leather covered steel back plate.